

ROBINSON BRADSHAW 1L DIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP

The Robinson Bradshaw 1L Diversity Fellowship furthers our commitment to recruit and promote talented individuals with diverse backgrounds, perspectives and experiences. Fellows will benefit from hands-on learning, participate in networking and community engagement opportunities, and receive scholarship funds to assist with their law school expenses.

Our Associates Say

Vault named Robinson Bradshaw as one of the nation's Top 5 midsize law firms to work for in its annual rankings. We ranked #1 for career outlook, #2 for satisfaction and associate/partner relations, #3 for quality of work, and in the top 10 for selectivity, firm culture, and diversity.

"I had known from the start that Robinson Bradshaw is excellent. Yet I continue to be impressed by the firm's commitment to recruiting, advancing, and retaining new and future attorneys who represent a range of perspectives and life experiences. In addition to the generous scholarship, Robinson Bradshaw has supported me with fantastic mentors, in-depth training, and opportunities—catered to both my career and personal interests—to connect with the legal and broader Charlotte community. "

Your Summer Program Experience

- Welcome to the team! From hands-on legal work and department lunches, to training sessions and after-work activities, your summer experience will mirror that of a new associate. We will also assign you a partner and an associate mentor.
- Roll up your sleeves. You will interact directly with clients and other attorneys, and have the opportunity to observe trials, negotiations, closings and depositions.
- Enjoy a sense of community. We will host a series of events and opportunities for clerks to build relationships with our attorneys and each other.
- No labels. Robinson Bradshaw does not assign summer clerks to specific practice groups or departments. This allows you to work with attorneys throughout the firm.

Fellowship Benefits

- A paid position ($3,460/week) as a first-year summer associate at the Charlotte office of one of the leading firms in the Southeast
